

REHEARSAL ASSISTANT

(Part Time / Weekends)

We're looking for someone to join the team and help grow our rehearsal space.

This is a part-time role focused on bookings, artist relationships, and keeping the space active with great bands and musicians.

The role:

- Managing and assisting with rehearsal bookings on shift
- Building relationships with artists, bands & local music communities
- Proactively bringing new clients into the space
- Supporting the day to day running of sessions when needed
- Helping shape how the rehearsal side of the studio grows

Hours:

- Approx 8-16 hours per week
- Mainly weekends, with some flexibility
- 1-2 shifts per week
- Assisting with events / rep shifts

We're looking for someone who:

- Is connected to (or excited by) the local music scene
- Is organised, proactive, and good with people
- Understands how bands and artists work
- Ideally has experience in studios, venues, or live music environments

Bonus if you:

- Play in bands / produce / promote
- Have ideas on how to develop and grow a creative space

A great role for someone who wants to be part of a studio environment and work closely with artists.
